Second Sunday
of Lent

The Archdiocese of Regina is asking Saskatchewan Artists for help raising funds for the education of priests

The full cost of a seminary education is frequently beyond the reach of men who are discerning a call to the priesthood. Your support will ensure that our seminarians receive adequate tuition assistance, so that money is never an obstacle between a man and this sacred vocation. To start the fundraising we are hosting an On-line Art Auction March 1. We are asking Canadian artists for donations of original art that will be promoted and auctioned on-line beginning March 1. There is something more personal about being able to give artwork rather than a monetary donation - you will be giving something of yourself - something you have created that will benefit us all. Tax receipts for the value of the artwork will be available. CONTACT: lburkhart@archregina.sk.ca

Stewardship Bulletin Bit

"Here I am!" he answered." - Genesis 22:11

It is easy to say, "Here I am, Lord," when we are kneeling in church. But how easy is it to say "Here I am, Lord," when a neighbor needs our help, when we are invited to join a parish ministry, or when we are asked to provide financial support? Often times we are called when it's not convenient for us. Discipleship is not always easy, most of the time it will make us uncomfortable and vulnerable.

TF75: Prayer, Fasting and Almsgiving Lenten Retreat - Part 2

Last week we realized that, just as our bodies immune systems are locked into a daily physical battle to keep us well, so too are our Spiritual Lives caught up in a daily struggle to keep us well. This week we look at how fasting provides an essential balance to our propensity to 'overconsume' the things of this world. As today's segment comes to a close we'll even take some time to put together a concrete fasting plan that can carry us through Lent. <http://thinkingfaith.libsyn.com/tf75-prayer-fasting-and-almsgiving-lenten-retreat-part-2>

Attached and Indifferent: Technological living on a lonely planet

Dr. Gregory Kennedy, SJ. Poet and author of An Ontology of Trash: the disposable and its problematic nature

Wednesday, February 28, 2018

7:30 pm

Campion College Riffel Auditorium

Admission is free and open to everyone

Greg Kennedy, SJ is a Jesuit priest both amused and bemused by our complex relationships with our tools and systems. He looks for points of light and humour in the often grave and absurd workaday stuff of modern life.

As spiritual director at Ignatius Jesuit Centre in Guelph, Greg explores the confluence of spirituality, ecology and creativity. Trees, music and good conversation enliven him most, especially when they all go together.
