The Holy and the Profane: A Rabbi and A Bishop Remember Leonard Cohen One Year On

You are invited to join Rabbi Jeremy Parnes and Archbishop Donald Bolen for a discussion of the songs of the late Leonard Cohen. All are welcome to this free evening of dialogue on Thursday, October 26th, 7pm at Beth Jacob Synagogue, 4715 McTavish Street, Regina. Leonard Cohen (1934-2016) was a Canadian singer, songwriter, musician, poet, and novelist. His work explored religion, politics, isolation, sexuality, and personal relationships. An observant Jew, Cohen was strongly influenced by Christian and Buddhist themes, which he brought into his work. About his work, he said: "At our best, we inhabit a biblical landscape, and this is where we should situate ourselves without apology."

Thinking Faith! (Seriously - That's What Catechetics Means)

It's fine to speak about coaching families and adults, about accompanying and apprenticing others in the faith, but how does one actually do this? What does Catechesis - teaching the faith - look like for adults, for kids, for intergenerational families and parish groups? Eric and Brett discuss the challenges and share some practical tips this week on Thinking Faith!

Archbishop's Appeal

It is easy for us to take credit for the richness of our lives – to see our time, talents and treasures as things we have built, created and earned for ourselves. The life of Christian stewardship challenges us to see God, and not ourselves, as the true source of all we have and to see these things not as commodities we've earned to do with as we choose, but as gifts we've been given to fulfill God's own purpose. The Archbishop's Appeal invites us to make Christian stewardship an integral part of our daily lives, making a return to God in proportion to what we have been given.

Stewardship Bulletin Bit
"My God will supply whatever you need..." - Philippians 4:19

God really does provide for those who are grateful and generous. This is very difficult for people that don't live a stewardship lifestyle to believe. People are skeptical and say it's just coincidence. If you are skeptical, try living a stewardship lifestyle for just one month – be generous with your gifts of time, talent and treasure and see how God provides for your needs.
