Archbishop's Appeal

In today's gospel, we learn an incredible lesson about what happens when we act out in faith, even amidst opposing people. The blind man (Bartimaeus) called out to Jesus, because he knew that Christ could heal Him, and He believed that Christ would. He had faith. And even when people around him tried to hush him, the man was not deterred. He continued to cry out with courage and conviction. In turn, Jesus gave the man his sight back, and the gospel tells us that the man then followed Jesus "on the way."

Christian discipleship begins with a faith response to Jesus. He has called us to Himself, and we must choose how we will respond. We must take ownership of the faith He has blessed us with and choose to live in faith, to live for Him — even when we face opposition. We give Jesus our lives. We live boldly and courageously, giving our time, talents and treasure to serve Him, in the myriads of opportunities God gives us every day because, like Bartimaeus, we believe! One of the myriads of opportunities the Lord gives us to boldly and courageously live our faith is by giving to the Archdiocesan Appeal in as many ways as we can, monetarily, or by spiritual contribution, offering time to pray our devotional prayers every day for the 8 weeks of campaign. With our gifts, we are investing in the continuous building of God's Kingdom in our part of the world for our generation and for the next. By generously giving of yourself you follow the Lord as boldly and courageously as Bartimaeus whose boldness of faith in Jesus led to the healing of his blindness, and by his clear sight he followed the Lord to Jerusalem and beyond.

Archbishop's Appeal Intercessory Prayer

Let us pray for the healing of all material and spiritual blindness in us, and for the outpouring of grace to express boldly our faith in Jesus by our generous contribution to the Archdiocesan Appeal that supports the pastoral programs of the Archdiocese catering to those who ardently seek to know the Lord more and to commit themselves to serve the gospel in their lives. Let us pray to the Lord.

TF110: Reverence For Life Month - The Elderly, Sick and Dying with Tashia Toupin

Social Justice Coordinator, Tashia Toupin is in studio one more time as we complete our Reverence for Life Month series. We'll discuss those particular life issues surrounding care for the elderly, the sick and the dying with a focus on our common call to create a culture of encounter, in the midst of a culture that seeks to avoid or end suffering at all costs. We're choosing a life of care, compassion, and accompaniment this week on Thinking Faith!

"AS ONE WHO SERVES"

Holy Orders is a sacrament and the deacon is a sacramental icon of Christ the servant. This is shown by the deacon's role in the liturgy, by his service in the community, and by the relationship between liturgy and service that the deacon lives out: worship leads to service and service leads to worship. The deacon's liturgical role on the Mass is most prominent at those points where the Mass points beyond itself to our Christian engagement with the world. For instance, the deacon is responsible for the prayers of the faithful, where we pray for the Church and the world, and for the dismissal, where we are told to go forth serving by our lives. In the Archdiocese of Regina, a deacon's assignment is designed to capture this relationship. Each deacon is assigned to a parish, where he serves in our weekly worship as deacon of the Mass, and to a service ministry, where he is with those who are marginalized in some way. The form of such service can be very flexible, but it always tries to match the gifts and calling of a particular deacon with a need in the community.

Do you know someone who should consider whether they are called to be a permanent deacon? Pray for him! And tell him to contact; Dr. Brett Salkeld, Archdiocesan Theologian bretzky@hotmail.com 306-352-1651 ext. 214

BULLETIN BOARD

Stewardship Bulletin Bit

"And Jesus said to him, 'Go your way; your faith has made you well.' And immediately he received his sight and followed him on the way." Mark 10:52

Faith is believing in something even though you may not be able to see it. Many people think that miracles don't happen anymore. But, if you focus on the positive, not the negative, focus on your blessings instead of your hardships, miracles will seem common and you will see God's active presence in your daily life.
