Plenary Indulgences for the deceased faithful in the current pandemic

In a special decree, issued on October 22, the Apostolic Penitentiary has said that "this year, in the current circumstances due to the "Covid-19" pandemic, the Plenary Indulgences for deceased faithful will be extended throughout the entire month of November, with adaptation of works and conditions to guarantee the safety of the faithful."

This includes changes to indulgences provided for private prayer for the deceased in a church and for visitation of a cemetery to pray for the deceased. In the case of private prayer in a church, individuals unable to attend a church at this time due to illness or other pandemic-related factors, may do so within their own homes as well. Both of these pious practices may be transferred to any other day of an individual's choosing throughout the month of November.

TF217: Mark Shea and The Church's Best Kept Secret - Part 3

In this multi-part series, we sit down with Catholic writer, speaker, and apologist, Mark Shea to discuss his newest book "The Church's Best Kept Secret: A Primer on Catholic Social Teaching."

Show Snippet: "This is part of our heavily libertarian way of looking at things; that I can be personally generous, but why do I need the state to put a gun to my head and tell me that I have to give to pay for somebody else's healthcare?"

All three of the readings today are end of time in nature. In the first reading, the writer personifies a heavenly wisdom, making note that this wisdom, which is clearly beyond this world, is readily available for those who prudently live their lives seeking it. In the second reading, Paul addresses the Thessalonians about those who have died, assuring them that, through His death and resurrection, Christ has won the victory for us. Therefore, those who die in Christ will be raised. In the gospel, the five foolish bridesmaids miss the arrival of the bridegroom because they were not prepared. It is clear that the message of today's readings is one that is beyond this world. They communicate to us about life hereafter. The lesson is this: if you are not prepared for the heavenly feast, you will be locked out forever! It is a sobering reminder of God's love and justice. We don't know when the Lord's return will take place or when we will be ushered from this world. So as Christians, stewards of God's manifold gifts, we must use wisely and timely all of our time, talents and treasure. The Archbishop's Appeal provides us with the opportunity to invest wisely all of our gifts in the future, beyond this world that has been entrusted to the Church of the Archdiocese of Regina. Your generous contributions to organizations like our Youth Ministry and Lay Ministry programs help to grow the disciples and Christian leaders of the future. The call of the Archbishop's Appeal is a call to invest the gifts our God has entrusted to us with a divine promise of future growth. Your financial contribution is a response in faith that demonstrates a sacrificial willingness to live the message of the Gospel. If you have not already done so, there is still time to make a contribution. Any donation, large or small will assist our Archdiocese in continuing Christ's mission to grow disciples building their hope to enter God's eternal feast through the sharing of God's Word. ### Stewardship Bulletin Bit

"Therefore, stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour."

- Matthew 25:13

Many of us have put off doing something because we think we are too busy. We've all said, "I'll do it later when I have time." Unfortunately, too many of us apply this attitude to our Faith. Jesus' call is urgent, in the here and now, in your current circumstances. Don't delay. How is God calling you to use your gifts today? None of us is guaranteed tomorrow.

BULLETIN BOARD

Leaders needed!

Do you have a gift for hospitality? Are you looking to be part of a small community of young adults who can come together around a shared interest? (Jogging? Dancing? Movies? Art? Parenting?) If so, then the Office of Youth and Young Adult Ministry needs you! We are looking to create a wide variety of small groups for young adults, but we need people willing to commit to leading for a period of 8 weeks. Each group will have a social/shared interest component and a faith component. We will help with all of it! All we need is your willingness to serve. If you are interested, please email us at oyyam@archregina.sk.ca

Clinical Pastoral Education Program

Clinical Pastoral Education (CPE) is training in the art and skills of spiritual and religious care that is person-centered, honors religious differences, and evokes spiritual capacities, resilience, and resources of people in times of medical and/or spiritual transition. Employing an adult education model, CPE integrates personal learning goals with practice-based goals. CPE provides in-depth training for persons who desire a learning environment where feedback from peers, teachers, and interdisciplinary colleagues enhances skills and develops increased self-awareness. This is a six-month program beginning November 2020 and ending in May 2021. This program is sponsored by Emmanuel Care and hosted by Santa Maria's Senior's Citizen's Home, Regina. For more information, contact Francis Maza, at Emmanuel Care f.maza@emmanuelcare.ca

Visitation House Thanks You - Queen City Marathon 2020

This year's marathon was virtual, but the needs of Visitation House are real. In the past 20 years of the Queen City Marathon, Fr. John Weekend has raised almost $160,000 in support of Visitation House, an outreach centre for women in downtown Regina, under the auspices of the Archdiocese of Regina. Although Fr. John has retired from running, he still organizes the "Holey Soles" team and continues this wonderful work and 2020 was exceptional in these Covid-19 times. Watch the video <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=b80C5edfNm8> to meet the team and messages from Theresa Hilbig, Executive Director of Visitation House and Fr. John.
