Let's put People and Planet First with Development and Peace — Caritas Canada's new campaign!

In Canada, most people can speak out freely when injustice is committed. In many countries of the Global South, however, communities are threatened when they seek to protect their rights, especially their right to a healthy environment. This climate of insecurity is often fueled by the presence and influence of corporations, some of which are Canadian. Undaunted, many vulnerable communities fight courageously to defend their rights, their lands and the environment against corporate harm. This year, Development and Peace's People and Planet First campaign invites you to stand in solidarity with them and celebrate their work! To learn more about the campaign, join Development & Peace for an introductory workshop at 11 am-1 pm CST on October 16th on ZOOM. Please pre-register at <https://us02web.zoom.us/join/register/tZcsc-GvpzkoHNGvdsBgl1cvE62qGj74nAE0>. ## TF265: Dr. Brett Salkeld Speaking to Huron Perth School Division - Part 2

We continue our four-part series of talks given by Dr. Brett Salkeld to the teachers of the Huron Perth School Division. Show Snippet: "...if you need any proof at all of the wisdom that's embedded in this teaching, that is that children are best off when they are educated by their own parents, in the values and traditions of their own communities, then you don't need to look any further than the chaos that followed from Indigenous children forcibly taken from their families and communities."

Archbishop's Appeal

Often when we read this Gospel, we think that only the poor enter the kingdom of God. But what is meant by "the rich." God gives us so many gifts. He calls us to share those gifts with others. So being rich in gifts but not sharing them is a great waste. It is this wasting of talents that is a sorrow to God. The more talents we are given, the more that is expected of us by God. Jesus said to the man at the beginning of the Gospel that he was to "sell what you own, and give the money to the poor." This can be seen somewhat metaphorically. God calls us to give of ourselves and to use our talents to honour Him. We are to give to those who have less. So, we are to share our faith with those who have none. We are to use our talents to show non-believers how wonderful it is to be in communion with God. It is only through giving our lives to God and sharing that experience with others, can we help others to come to a relationship with Him. Our lives belong to God.

There are many ways to share with the Church to help it evangelize and bring others to understand the power of being in right relationship with Jesus and the heavenly Father. The Archdiocese of Regina, through its various departments provides support to parishes so that we can work together to help people come to trust in God. By donating to the Archbishop's Annual Appeal, you ensure that we can continue to support the good works of the parishes and the Archdiocese.

Stewardship Bulletin Bit

"It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for one who is rich to enter the kingdom of God."
(Mark 10:25)

Jesus uses tough language that we may not want to hear. But, we are all called to be generous with all of our gifts. Not just the ones we pick and choose, but all our gifts, and especially the one that means the most to us! That includes our time in prayer to God, our talent in participating in parish ministries and our treasure supporting our local parish and other charities.

BULLETIN BOARD

Exploring our Sacred Texts: A conversation about stewarding our common life

All are invited to join this online series with Jewish, Christian, and Muslim panelists to discuss the scriptural sources for understanding generosity, hospitality, and compassion. Join us for this three-episode series, Thursdays, October 21, October 28, and November 4 at 3:00 PM.

Oct. 21 - Generosity

Oct. 28 - Hospitality

Nov. 4 - Compassion

•Rabbi Jeremy Parnes is the spiritual leader of Beth Jacob Synagogue in Regina. His long involvement in multifaith and community organizations includes Regina Multifaith Forum, Habitat for Humanity, numerous City of Regina committees on social housing and homelessness, and several inner-city boards, including Youth Connexions and The Boys and Girls Clubs of Canada.

•Rev. Amanda Currie has been minister of First Presbyterian Church in Regina since 2017. She previously ministered in Saskatoon for 14 years and has recently completed a two-year term as Moderator of the Presbyterian Church in Canada. She is vice president of the Canadian Council of Churches, where she has served on the Governing Board for the past 7 years. She has convened the Ecumenical & Interfaith Committee of the Presbyterian Church and is active in numerous national and local ecumenical and interfaith initiatives.

•Imam Dr. Mohamed Masloh is the leader of the Islamic Association of Saskatchewan in Regina, an RCMP chaplain, and a teaching assistant at the University of Regina. He studied at the prestigious Al-Azhar University in Cairo and the Graduate Theological Foundation in Indiana, where he earned a Ph.D. in Islamic Studies. In these days of increased social polarization and intolerance, where racism, antisemitism, and Islamophobia appear to be increasing daily, dialogue between faith communities is an antidote to ignorance and hatred. Generosity, hospitality, and compassion are social virtues that can heal the wounds of our society.

Spiritual Motherhood of Priests Apostolate for the Archdiocese of Regina

The idea of spiritual adoption of priests, where a woman adopts a certain priest as her spiritual "son" for whom she promises to pray, is not a new one; however, it was reserved only for nuns. In 2007, the Congregation of the Clergy, with the approval of Pope Benedict XVI, invited lay women to adopt priests as their spiritual sons, and to pray for them constantly, particularly before the Blessed Sacrament. In this Spiritual Motherhood of Priests, we try to imitate our Blessed Mother Mary, the first Mother of Priests, in her humility and sacrifice. We adopt priests as our sons with the commitments of Eucharistic Adoration, daily prayers, and sacrifices to help our priest-sons give themselves to God more perfectly in being shepherds of their flocks, leading us all to heaven with them.
