

Archdiocese of Regina Bulletin

October 20, 2019

29th Sunday in Ordinary Time

This month begins Reverence for Life Month within the Archdiocese of Regina.

This year we will be posting all our Reverence for Life materials on our Facebook page and on the Archdiocesan Reverence for Life page, which can be found under Ministries and Services, Social Justice. Please follow up on Facebook by searching “Archdiocese of Regina”.

Any questions or concerns please contact Tashia Toupin at ttoupin@archregina.sk.ca

The Flourishing Congregations Institute was established at Ambrose University to explore and describe church attenders', leaders', and experts' perspectives on the variables that account for flourishing within Catholic, mainline, and conservative Protestant congregations in Canada. You can be a part of the continued research by participating in the survey at this link.

<https://tinyurl.com/fc236c>

The survey takes about 15-20 minutes to complete. You can stop and return to it if you can't complete it in one sitting.

For more information, or if you have questions, please contact Amanda Trainor at the Archdiocese of Regina 306-352-1651 ext. 230 or atrainor@archregina.sk.ca

The Canadian Council of Churches celebrates its 75th anniversary in 2019

To mark the event we're hosting “Christians in Canada Today” -- a cross-Canada live-streamed event featuring dialogue with prominent church leaders interacting with participants across the country.

In Regina, we'll be gathering at the Living Spirit Centre, 3018 Doan Drive, from 10:30 am to 1:30 pm on Saturday, October 26th. We begin with worship together at 10:30 am, followed by the live-stream event from 11 am - 1 pm, and ending with lunch together. Lunch will be provided, with donations appreciated.

Local hosting by the Regina Council of Churches and the Living Spirit Centre. Contact Rev. Amanda Currie at revfpc@sasktel.net if you have questions.

TF161: Resisting Throwaway Culture with Dr. Charlie Camosy - Part 3

In this part three of four Dr. Brett Salkeld and Deacon Eric Gurash sit down with Dr. Charlie Camosy of Fordham University to discuss issues of sex and sexuality, reproductive biotechnologies and abortion. They'll examine the ways our throwaway culture affects our approaches to these issues and examine how the principles of a consistent life ethic can lead us to healthier approaches and discussions. Resistance may not always be futile, this week on Thinking Faith!

Archbishop's Appeal

Many have referred to St. Paul as “The Persistent Apostle.” Thus, Paul serves as a great example and model for what is laid out for us in all the readings for this 29th Sunday in Ordinary Time. Persistence and its importance to people of faith is an intricate part of each of the readings. The conversion of Paul is recounted six times in scripture — three times in the Acts of the Apostles and three times by Paul himself in his letters. The intensity and the persistence of Paul's faith lead us to see how important persistence is to live our life as disciples of Christ. From the persistence of Moses in the first reading from Exodus, to Paul's urging us to “be persistent” in his letter to Timothy, to the Parable of the Persistent Widow in the Gospel from Luke, we are advised that we should always pray and never give up, work for good even when it seems nothing's changing, give even if our giving is too little to be significant. The turtle wins the race in the ‘Turtle and the Hare’, very slow in his little steps, but persistently moving forward without let up towards the finish line. No matter how little we can afford to share in the Archdiocesan Annual Appeal, but done lovingly and consistently, we are confident that God will multiply it with overflowing for His purpose. Perseverance is a hallmark of a disciple of Christ. Good Christians know that living in that way is not always easy and comfortable. Yet with the grace of God, the strength to both live that way and to fulfill Jesus' call to carry our lives as disciples of Christ is both possible and a path to great joy and happiness. [Adapted

BULLETIN BOARD

RCSD Distinguished Alumni Nominations

The Regina Catholic School Division theme is, "Let Your Light Shine." This theme is based on Matthew 5:16, which says, "In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father in heaven." We believe our alumni are doing good works, letting their lights shine before all the world, and giving glory to our Father in heaven. Because we feel so strongly that our alumni are following Matthew's gospel, we want to recognize those who are outstanding representatives of Regina Catholic Schools.

In May 2020, the Regina Catholic Schools Distinguished Alumni Program will recognize our second year recipients. Do you know a graduate of our school division who is letting their light shine boldly? We invite you to nominate them. We are accepting nominations now; the deadline for nominations is Monday, November 25, 2019. More details and nomination forms are online now at www.rcsd.ca/Board/DistinguishedAlumni.

Thank you for helping us identify those who are spreading the word of God beyond the halls of our schools. We are proud to be able to honour those who are making a difference, a difference which began in the Regina Catholic School Division.
