itwewin Corner (itwewin is the Cree word which means 'the word' or 'as it is said...')

Fr. John Weckend, Archdiocese of Regina Truth and Reconciliation Healing Committee. Did you know... Marion Buller is a Cree jurist in British Columbia and a member of the Mistawasis First Nation in Saskatchewan. She started her career working in civil and criminal law and in 1994 became the first Indigenous woman to be appointed as a provincial court judge in B.C. She served as Chief Commissioner for the National Inquiry into Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls. In the Commission's final report, she stated "This report is about deliberate race, identity and gender-based genocide. The violence against Indigenous women, girls, and 2SLGBTQQIA people is a national tragedy of epic proportion." ### Visitation House Supported Through Queen City Marathon 2022

Fr. John Weckend ran in the first marathon in 2001 and since then has raised over $170,000 in support of Visitation House, an outreach centre for women in downtown Regina, under the auspices of the Archdiocese of Regina.

Although Fr. John took a break from running a few years ago, he still organized a team to continue this wonderful work. This year, he has returned to run with the Holey Soles Team. The team members are not running on race day. Instead, they have chosen the 'Virtual Run' option of choosing a day, time, and location that fits with their schedules. They need to complete their part of the team run between September 12 and October 12.

Donations of $10 or more receive a charitable donation receipt from Visitation House.
